First Look

Even depressing jobs can have silver linings—as Gina Rodriguez (above right, with costar Angela Gibbs) learns in Not Dead Yet, a new workplace comedy premiering Wednesday, February 8, at 8:30/7:30c on ABC. Based on Alexandra Potter's feisty book Confessions of a Forty-Something Fk Up, the show follows Rodriguez's plucky Nell Stevens, a once successful journalist whose love life and career have flatlined. Hoping to revive both, she moves back to Pasadena, California, and finds work writing obituaries. It's a not-so-grave turn that yields new friends and plenty of lively experiences. Who knew dead people could be so much fun? —Andrea Towers

YOUR FEEDBACK

HOLIDAY LIGHT I loved the Hallmark Channel movie Hanukkah on Rye. It was delightful, creative and heartfelt. It gave new energy to what has become a rather tired holiday movie genre. I'm an ex–New Yorker and they got that vibe just right! —Mary

VIVID MEMORIES In the tribute to TV people who departed last year ["A Starry Farewell," December 19], one omission is worth mentioning: Liz Sheridan. How could you include Estelle Harris, who played George's mother on Seinfeld, and ignore Sheridan, who was Jerry's mother? To paraphrase Helen Seinfeld, who didn't like her? —Willie

Your tribute did not mention Olivia Newton-John. She was in TV movies, had cameos on Murphy Brown and Glee and appeared on reality shows like American Idol. —Bob

FLURRY COMMENTARY Cheers to the local ABC affiliate announcers who did wrap-up after the December 17 Miami–Buffalo football game, outside in the snow as the blizzard moved in! —Carol

The Show We're Talking About in the Office

It would be easy to bill the Paramount+ series 1923 as just another spinoff set in the sprawling Yellowstone universe. But creator Taylor Sheridan knows you don't cast veteran actors like Harrison Ford and Helen Mirren (above) if you're making an average series. The duo's electrifying screen presence (which marks their second outing as husband and wife after a stint on The Mosquito Coast) elevates a show that already has masterful storytelling and a tight ensemble—proving that despite all the natural and man-made threats slinking in the Montana shadows, the Duttons are here to stay. —Andrea Towers

America's top TV critic Matt Roush answers your burning questions

What ever happened to Prime Video's The Wheel of Time? Only a few episodes were shown, and it hasn't been seen again. I enjoyed all of Robert Jordan's books and would love to see this completed. —Art A.

MATT ROUSH: A second season was filmed but may have been delayed because of the fanfare around the streamer's higher-profile fantasy The Lord of the Rings: The Rings of Power. Good news: Wheel already has a renewal for Season 3.

Hampshire

Back in July 2021, it was announced that TBS was going to reboot Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman (1976–77) with Emily Hampshire from Schitt's Creek playing Mary. Now that TBS is out of the scripted series game, has this died as well, or could it go to another outlet? I was looking forward to it. I wish the original would stream somewhere. —Jeffrey

MATT ROUSH: I've scoured the industry trade publications to see if there's any new news about this remake, and I've come up empty. The project could be lost or stuck in development limbo, but given the current appetite for reviving so-called intellectual property, I'd like to think we haven't heard the last of Mary Hartman—although, as in so many cases, it will be hard to top the original, a subversive satire of soaps from the great Norman Lear.

Will Prime Video bring us a Season 2 of its outstanding police drama Three Pines? I have read the Chief Inspector Gamache novels by Louise Penny and wholly champion the added storyline regarding missing Indigenous women—an important issue. Alfred Molina gives a thoughtful and nuanced performance as Gamache. —Meg W., Lexington, Kentucky

MATT ROUSH: No word yet on renewal, but there are plenty more Gamache books to tackle, and the streamer has a history of adapting popular book series (Bosch, Reacher), so I'm hopeful.

Anne Rice's Mayfair Witches

Sundays, 9/8c, AMC (also AMC+)

"THINGS DON'T END well for the women in this family," warns one of New Orleans' Mayfair matrons at a wake for one of their own, who died under extremely bizarre circumstances.

Do tell. And do they ever, with reams of exposition to lay the foundation for Anne Rice's Mayfair Witches, which plays like a weak Gothic stepsister to last year's more compellingly erotic AMC adaptation of Rice's Interview With the Vampire.

"I can't believe this s--t," snaps Rowan Fielding (tremulous Alexandra Daddario), born a Mayfair but given to adoption, from whence she became a successful San Francisco neurosurgeon. Her spooky and alarming ability to make brain vessels rupture just by visualizing them spurs her to investigate and reclaim her heritage, which she's awfully slow to appreciate.

This modern doctor is no pushover, which presents a challenge to the suavely demonic supernatural "being" known as Lasher (Boardwalk Empire's Jack Huston), always lurking to seduce her like a Phantom of the French Quarter. He's meant to be menacing, but beyond a moment when he unveils his monstrous nature, he projects the aura of a smug Johnny Depp impersonator.

Many episodes open with gritty flashbacks from 17th century Scotland, where a band of female healers fear the worst when a royal witchfinder enters their village. No doubt voodoo-friendly New Orleans in the 21st century is a more hospitable crucible from which to practice magic, but so far, the spell cast by these haunted Mayfairs is a bit too ordinary, leaving me more bemused than truly bewitched. ★★½☆☆

Daddario as the new Mayfair matriarch

Pascal and Ramsey hiding from horror

The Last of Us

SERIES PREMIERE Sunday, Jan. 15, 9/8c, HBO

YOU'VE SEEN ITS like before: in 28 Days Later (the rabid infected), The Road (a journey through the postapocalypse) and The Walking Dead (surviving ghouls and inhumanity at its worst). But few have done it as well as this gripping, relentlessly brutal and unexpectedly moving nine-part thriller.

The greatest compliment I can give The Last of Us is that I only sensed its video-game origins during moments when the body count became overwhelmingly high. Mostly, the focus is more intimate, as we follow the gruff and mournful Joel (The Mandalorian's Pedro Pascal) as he escorts resentful teenage Ellie (Game of Thrones' remarkable Bella Ramsey)—whose mutated blood could provide a cure—through a nightmare-scape of fungus-spreading monsters, military overlords and violent, unforgiving revolutionaries.

The path is treacherous, but Ellie's occasional bursts of childlike glee (at her first car ride) and the poignant stories of those whose paths they cross—most memorably Nick Offerman and Murray Bartlett as a survivalist and the interloper he rescues—linger far longer than the horror. ★★★★½

Will Trent

Tuesdays, 10/9c, ABC

THE CHIPS ON Will Trent's well-tailored shoulders would weigh down many detectives. Played with understated charm by Ramón Rodríguez, the hero of Karin Slaughter's excellent page-turning thrillers bears actual scars from a traumatic childhood spent in foster care. He's severely dyslexic—though modestly brags that he's "a pretty observant guy" when it comes to reading crime scenes like Atlanta's answer to Sherlock Holmes.

Plus, the local cops despise the Georgia Bureau of Investigation agent for having rooted out corruption within their department. Not that it ruffles his three-piece suits. Will is an engaging character who elevates his occasionally overheated eponymous crime drama with wry humor and sensitivity, including his adorable devotion to a Chihuahua named Betty and to his fellow cop and group-home survivor, the even tougher-skinned Angie (Erika Christensen, terrific). ★★★½☆

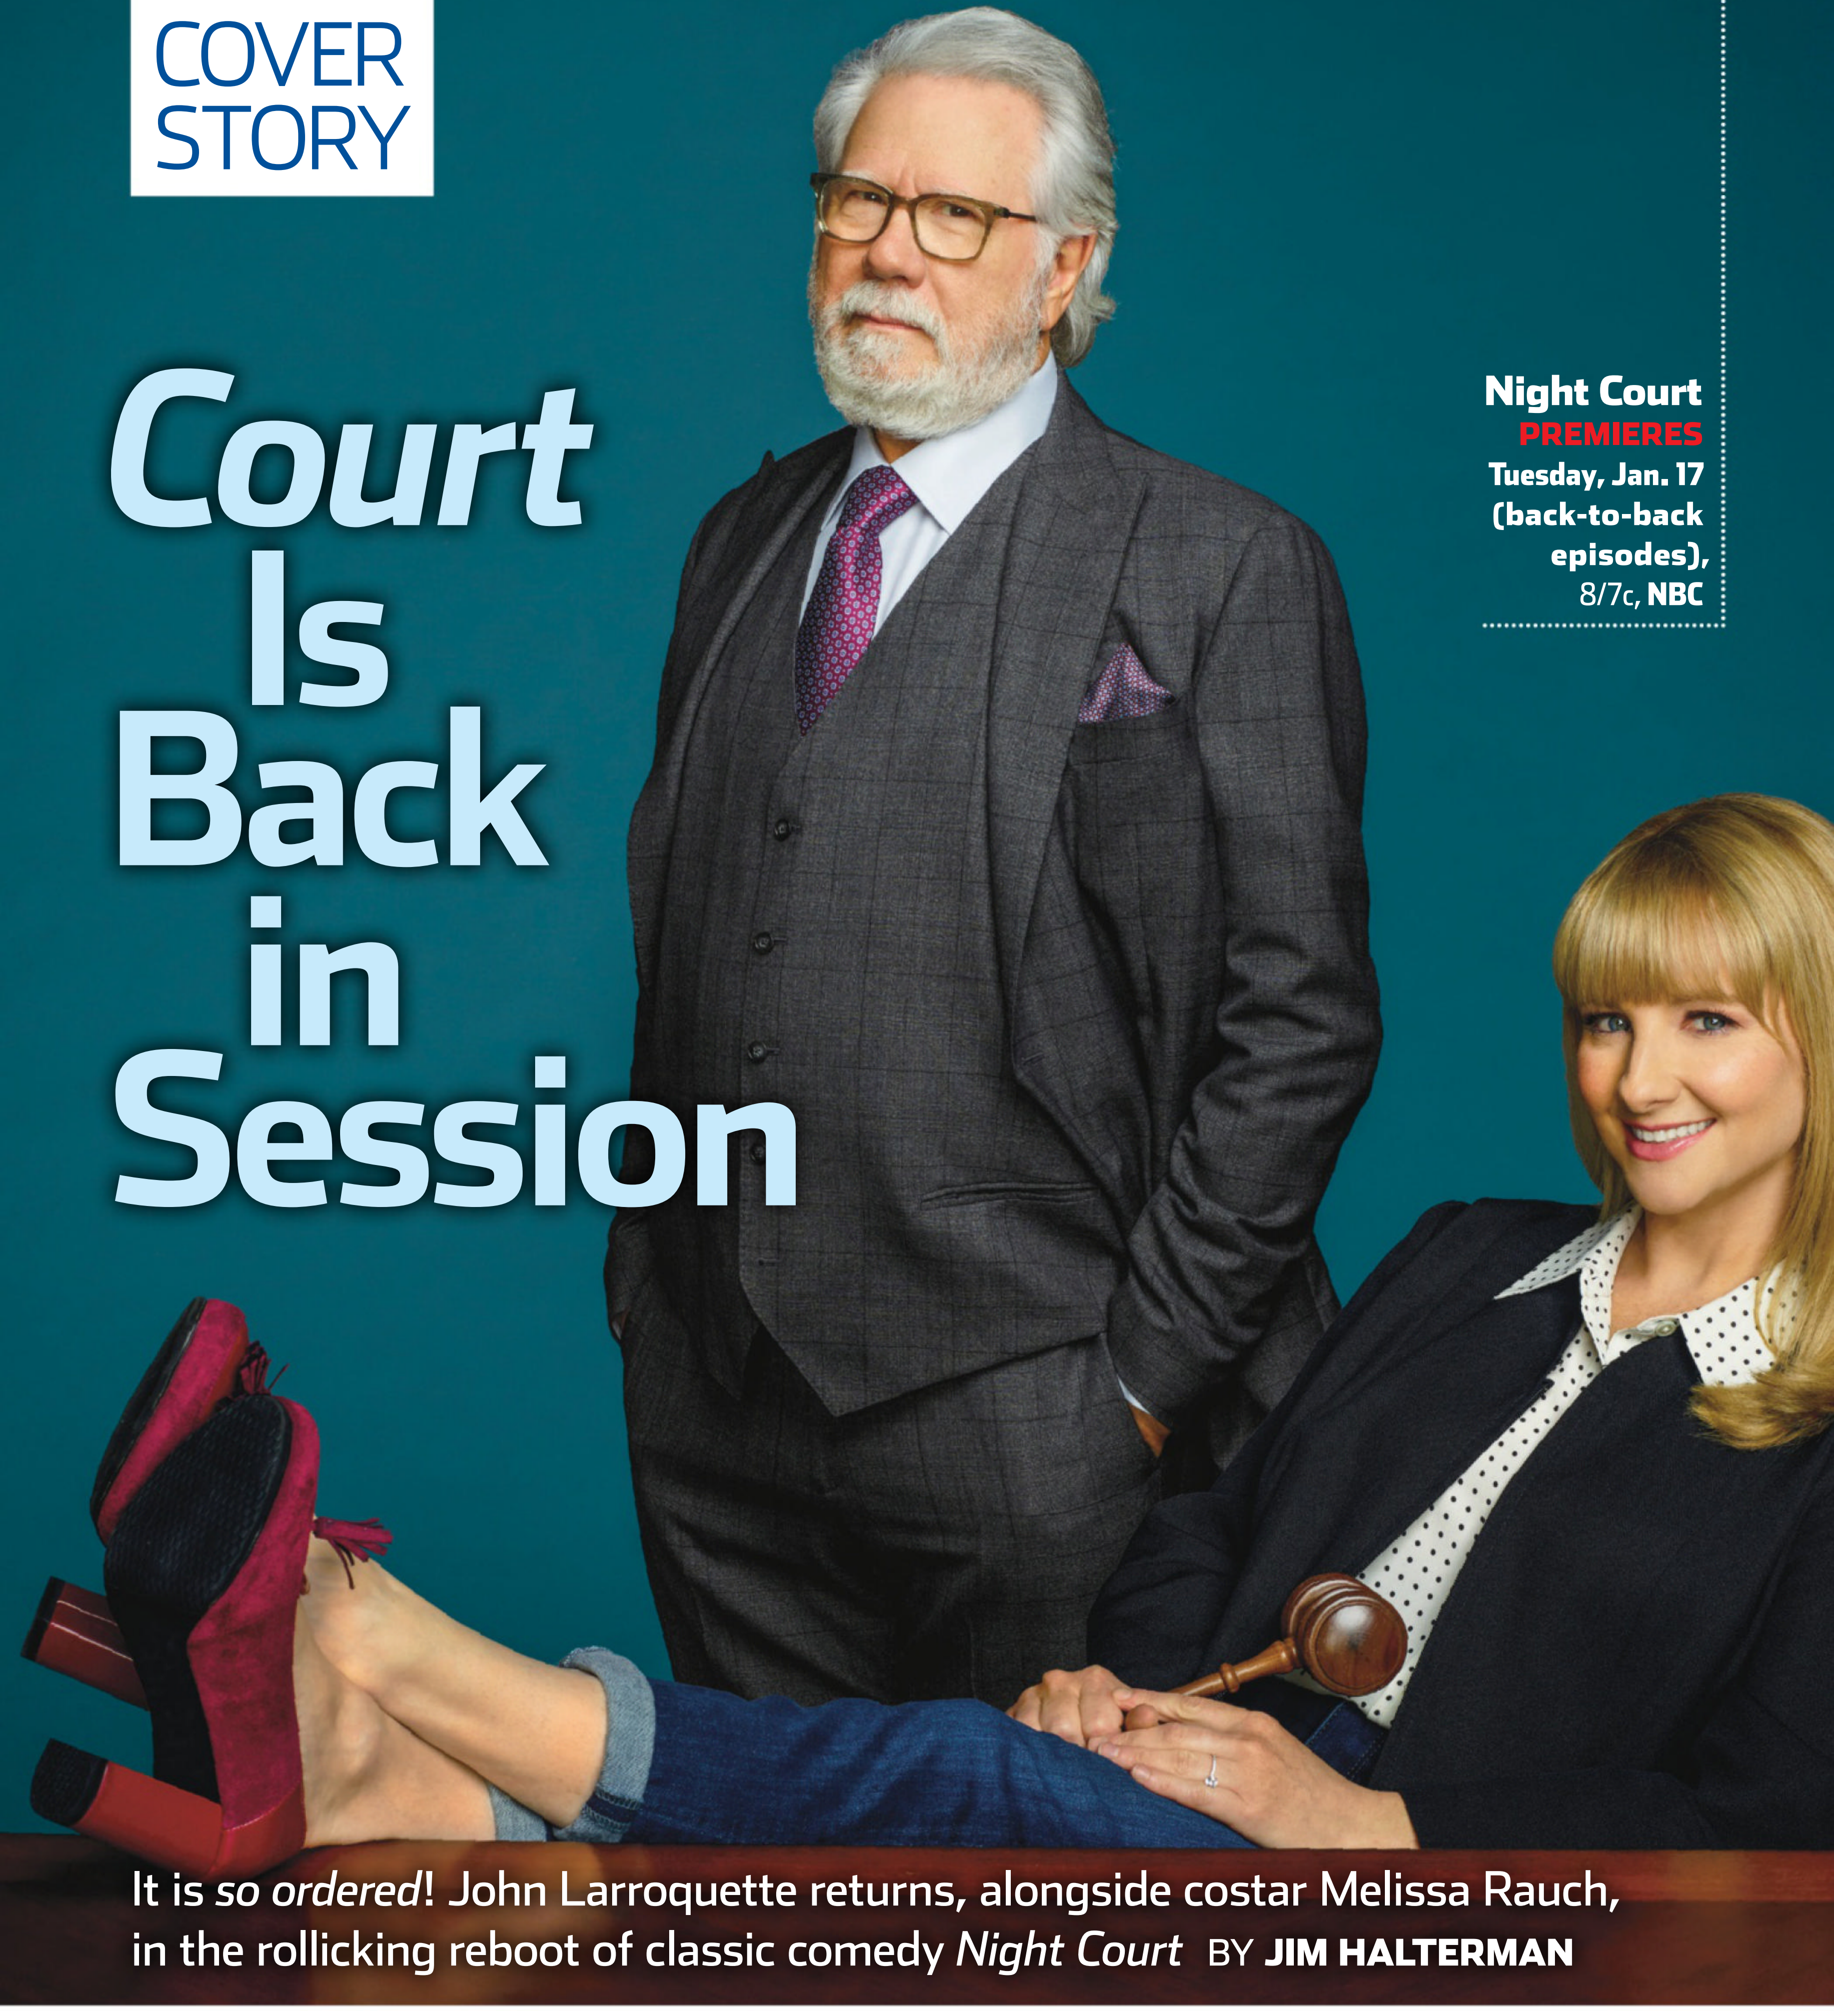
Court Is Back in Session



Night Court
PREMIERES
Tuesday, Jan. 17 (back-to-back episodes),
8/7c, NBC

It is so ordered! John Larroquette returns, alongside costar Melissa Rauch, in the rollicking reboot of classic comedy Night Court

BY JIM HALTERMAN

Laughter erupted on Warner Bros.' Burbank lot one night last August as a scene played out on the very familiar set of a courtroom and judge's chamber. At the center of the mirth was another infinitely recognizable part of the action—now-silver-haired John Larroquette, bringing his iconic character, snarky lawyer Dan Fielding, back to life for the NBC revival of Night Court. "We knew we wanted John to be a part of [the show], and luckily he was open to it," executive producer Winston Rauch says. "He won four Emmys in a row for Night Court."

What elicits Fielding's (and the series') return? Jovial judge Abby Stone (The Big Bang Theory's Melissa Rauch), who moves to New York City to take over the wacky arraignment court once presided over by her now-deceased father (memorably played on the 1984–92 series by the late Harry Anderson). "Abby has a belief in the power of seeing the best in people and being a different kind of judge," explains exec producer Dan Rubin. When she needs a defense attorney, she seeks out her father's old friend—and court is in session. TV Guide Magazine summoned Melissa Rauch (also an executive producer) and Larroquette (a producer) for questioning.

With Rauch, de Beaufort, Talwalkar and Lacretta, Night Court maintains its ensemble vibe

What was the key to making this revival work?

Melissa Rauch: First, it needed John Larroquette. I always remember John and Harry playing these gorgeous emotional moments. I was really excited to be able to do that.

John Larroquette: Quite honestly, that it was funny and captured a sense of humor that the audience could identify with and be entertaining enough for them to stick around to watch.

How was it getting back into Dan's shoes after 30 years, John?

Larroquette: Let me really be honest. I am 40 years older than when I began that part, so getting in his shoes was difficult because my feet are swollen. [Rauch laughs] Luckily, I had Melissa to play against, and it fell into place easily.

Rauch: Watching him work, swollen feet or not, was the equivalent of watching the [sitcom version of the] Olympics.

John, how have the last 30 years been for Dan?

Larroquette: He got out of the law system and found somebody he fell in love with and who fell in love with him. He was content and matured. And then his wife passed away and he retreated back into this dark cave. Dan is pulled back into the light by Harry's daughter.

Abby is pretty cheery and positive. Are there more layers we'll see?

Rauch: It was important there be a part of Harry in Abby, and she's coming to night court knowing all his stories. She's also lived through some darkness. [During the season, we'll also meet Abby's mother, Gina, played by Murphy Brown's Faith Ford.]

Will there be romance in Abby's and Dan's lives?

Larroquette: Dan had a great love that he lost. He's also 75—give the man a break! Anybody expecting that from this character at this age is like asking a basset hound to pole vault. Nobody wants to see that.

Rauch: Abby has a fiancé named Rand [Pete Holmes], and she came to New York City with hopes he was going to move too. It's an arc this season as Abby figures all that out.

Many prop items on the set are from the original series, like the armadillo and Harry's green couch. Is that an intentional tribute?

Larroquette: They're absolutely all there. Every time I walked onto the set, it was emotional. I would [envision former costars] Markie [Post] standing there, Harry at the bench or Charlie Robinson at his desk. It was a very fateful experience for me. ■

THEY'LL DO JUSTICE

Meet the trio of legal eagles who will crack wisest on the series

OLIVIA MOORE

(India de Beaufort)

The cutthroat assistant district attorney may have higher aspirations than night court but reluctantly embraces this work family. To play Olivia, says exec producer Winston Rauch (Melissa's husband), "we wanted someone in that role who really could go head-to-head with Dan Fielding."

NEIL VALLURI

(Kapil Talwalkar)

The neurotic clerk who tries to keep the court docket on task loosens up thanks to Abby's out-of-the-box legal approach. He's also in line with Night Court's "eccentric characters with something real underneath them that have their moments to shine," Winston Rauch says.

DONNA "GURGS" GURGANOUS (Lacretta)

The brassy bailiff initially seems a little "out there," executive producer Dan Rubin says, but she wears her loyalty to the job and to her night court clan proudly. "She's really protective of the people around her and quick to love them," says Rubin. "There's a real warmth there."

THROWBACK 2003

The infamous Super Bowl reboot—20 years later

The episode changed the thriller's roller-coaster trajectory, plus revealed the real Sydney Bristow—in sexy lingerie!

BY CHRISTOPHER WALLENBERG

Garner packed pistols and performed her own stunts

WHEN ALIAS TOUCHED down on ABC in 2001, the J.J. Abrams–created series dazzled viewers and critics as a butt-kicking breath of fresh air. Starring Jennifer Garner as spy Sydney Bristow, the action-packed drama boasted not only a female central character but also mythology-heavy storytelling. The show's heart-stopping cliffhangers and hairpin turns left viewers picking their jaws up off the floor. And no hourlong installment prompted more reaches for defibrillators than "Phase One," broadcast the night of 2003's Super Bowl XXXVII—a victory by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers over the Oakland Raiders. The episode earned Alias its best ratings ever.

A hard-to-fathom 20 years old this month, that episode sees heroine Sydney defeating longtime CIA enemy target the Alliance of Twelve, the sprawling organized crime syndicate she'd been trying to take down...ever since she learned in the series pilot that she was working for the Alliance and not the CIA. That's right: A double agent had been born on day one.

A Bold Grab for Viewers

"I remember reading the 'Phase One' script with extra interest because I knew it was potentially a game-changer for us," Michael Vartan, who played Sydney's CIA handler and love interest Michael Vaughn, tells TV Guide Magazine. "It was going to be the big Super Bowl episode that [could] put us over the top in terms of ratings."

To that end, Season 2's 13th episode brazenly rebooted Alias, with the goal of transforming a cult fave with a rabid fanbase into a bona fide hit. It was a lot to expect of a cool little counterintelligence drama, but the script did its job. Among its highlights were Sydney seducing a dangerous operative while scantily dressed, parachuting out of a crashing plane after a shoot-out, saving her father from the grips of an Alliance baddie (Rutger Hauer) and finally kissing Vaughn after more than a year of romantic tension. "There were so many twists and divergent storylines coming together," Vartan says. "And who's not watching Jennifer in lingerie? Are you crazy?"

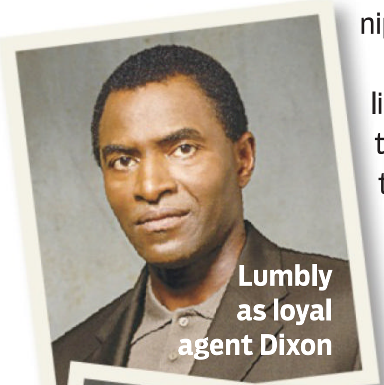
"Who's not watching Jennifer in lingerie? Are you crazy?" —Vartan

In addition to Sydney's seeming triumph over the Alliance, the show churned out more mind-jarring revelations. Her cover got blown; her best friend, Francie (Merrin Dungey), was murdered and replaced by a doppelgänger; and Alliance boss Sloane (Ron Rifkin) nefariously orchestrated his own organization's destruction. It was a brain-tickling big-picture transformation of the show, as dramatic as one of Sydney's cloak-and-dagger disguises.

Pivotal Plot Moment

At the time, creator Abrams said he'd felt hemmed in by what had become a repeating premise of "good guys posing as bad guys pretending to be good guys." Abrams viewed "Phase One" as a sort of new pilot for Alias.

At one turn, Sydney must save her father, Jack (Victor Garber), from Alliance clutches after their identities are revealed. To do so, she tells Marcus Dixon (Carl Lumbly), her steadfast partner at SD-6, one of the Alliance of Twelve's dozen global divisions, that he's been deceived for years: Convinced he was working for the CIA, he was doing dirty Alliance deeds. Sydney had been keeping the secret since the start of the series.



Lumbly as loyal agent Dixon

Vartan was CIA handler Vaughn

"Everything he believed about this young woman was called into question," Lumbly tells TV Guide Magazine of Dixon's reeling response. "She was involved in a far deeper game than he was aware. What does that now mean for their relationship?"

As Dixon is led away for questioning, Sydney tells him not to worry. "Don't talk to me," the agent replies sternly. Explains Lumbly: "He feels betrayed. His trust and faith have been used against him."

The revelation, Lumbly notes, reshaped the relationship and the show: "I thought it was a radical move, and shocking for an audience, which made it exciting."

Action and Attraction

The espionage thriller was bursting with betrayals, but adrenaline-pumping action sequences were Alias' hallmark. Vartan recalls Garner, who did many of her own stunts, accidentally breaking a stuntman's nose while filming the episode's jetliner fight scene. "She was mortified," he says.

When the simmering vibe between Sydney and Vaughn boiled over and they shared a smooch amid the SD-6 rubble, sparks from a nearby live wire literally flew. "It was strange shooting that first kiss," Vartan says. "The crew was like, 'Is this actually happening after all this time?!' "

If there was a truth about Alias, which wrapped for good in 2006, it was that you could not fall for everything—or anything—you saw. This episode, more than any other, pulled the rug out from under the characters. Vartan says, "It was like, 'Oh, things are not what they appear—in a very big way.' "

No shock, Sydney seems to have prevailed, but instead, she's fallen into a trap. "This whole thing was a manipulation," Abrams said then.

Promos featuring the buff, lingerie-clad Garner fostered the desired buzz—but in a twist for Alias creatives and cast, ABC cut to a Jon Bon Jovi performance postgame instead of rolling the show's opening credits, delaying the "Phase One" airing until 11pm Eastern time. At that hour, eyeballs were fatigued. The show's 17.4 million viewership was super for the fan-fave spy serial, but not Super Bowl–night sensational. (In 2001, a postgame Survivor episode drew 45.4 million.) But an adoring critic called Garner "the sexiest spy since Emma Peel." People were talking about Alias.

That night, Sydney's co-agent dad told her, in their line of work, "There's rarely an end to the story." Real talk. Three years of Alias' twisty turns lay ahead, during which Garner joined the A-list for good. ■

NETFLIX That '90s Show

THURSDAY, JAN. 19

ORIGINAL COMEDY Hello, Wisconsin! That '90s Show continues the laugh-filled look back at years gone by that started with eight popular seasons of That '70s Show (1998–2006). The action now takes place in 1995, but the winning formula remains the same—there's a new set of teens who'll be heading down to the basement that is still oddly smoky.

And upstairs are two familiar faces: Red and Kitty (Kurtwood Smith and Debra Jo Rupp, above right), who in the pilot welcome their granddaughter, Leia (Callie Haverda), into their home for the summer. "Kitty's kitchen has changed, which is lovely, although her hairdo did not," Rupp jokes. "When you find a style that works for you, why change it?"

Red and Kitty are now empty nesters—and at least one of them needs a change of pace. "I think Kitty has had it just being with Red," Rupp says. "So something new had to happen."

Leia's arrival is courtesy of a visit from Red and Kitty's son, Eric (Topher Grace), and his wife, Donna (Laura Prepon). Not surprisingly, the live audience goes crazy over these original cast members' cameos (the first of several this season). "The lore of the old show carries forward in a nostalgic way," notes executive producer Gregg Mettler. "But Leia is a new character, and her coming-of-age story will feel fresh."

Leia has friends (above, from left: Sam Morelos, Mace Coronel, Ashley Aufderheide, Haverda, Maxwell Acee Donovan and Reyn Doi) to help her in what both the original and new shows portray so well about adolescence. As Mettler puts it, "It's about getting these kids in the basement and having them talk through their issues and hopes and dreams, and watching them get good and bad advice and seeing how it all plays out." —John Hogan

The 1986 drama that led to this year's Maverick sequel is a miracle of high-flying action, with Cruise as a naval aviator given the opportunity to train at an elite fighting school—and making the most of it. Available now peacock

Poker Face

THURSDAY, JAN. 26

ORIGINAL DRAMA "There's something about a rumpled person moving through the world and cracking a case that brings me joy," says Natasha Lyonne (below). It shows: The Russian Doll star embraces playing Charlie Cale, a scruffy, sharp-eyed, Columbo-esque sleuth. The ex–poker player uses her skill as a human lie detector to solve murders in this engrossing case-of-the-week drama.

In the opener, Charlie unravels a tricky double homicide, but the fallout leads a casino mogul to put a hit on her, and she leaves town pursued by a thug (Benjamin Bratt). Each episode takes her to a new locale, cash-paying gig and injustice to set right in what amounts to a cross-country crime-solving road trip.

"What Charlie prizes above all is integrity. It's like John Lennon says [in the song], 'Just gimme some truth,' " says Lyonne, who executive produces with Rian Johnson of Knives Out fame. Like that franchise, Poker Face is full of famous faces, such as Adrien Brody, Nick Nolte, Chloë Sevigny and Ellen Barkin.

Charlie's world is far humbler. Take her ride, a 1969 Plymouth Barracuda that keeps going despite dents and near misses. Part of the appeal of the series for Lyonne is that she sees a lot of herself in that Barracuda. "I'm not a morning person. But 12 cups of coffee and 40 Red Bulls later, I'm like, 'Let's see what this puppy can do!' " —Kate Hahn

Shrinking

FRIDAY, JAN. 27

ORIGINAL COMEDY Anyone who wished their psychiatrist would stop asking, "How does that make you feel?" and just tell them what to do would be wise to book an hour with Jimmy Laird (a sensitive Jason Segel). Newly widowed, he treats his grief with alcohol until he snaps and tries to heal himself by using this novel therapy approach on his clients—with comic results.

"Somebody trying to help others while they're going through a nervous breakdown seemed like a recipe for comedy," quips Segel, who shaped the character alongside fellow show creators and executive producers Brett Goldstein and Bill Lawrence of Ted Lasso. Like that famed soccer coach, Jimmy earnestly wants to do the right thing in a world that thwarts leading with the heart.

Jimmy's tactics distress his boss, Paul Rhoades (Harrison Ford, above, whose Hollywood icon status has hit a whole other level with Yellowstone prequel 1923). "Our relationship vacillates between mentor-mentee, father-son and confrontational peer," Segel says of Rhoades, who's dealing with his own issues.

Do Jimmy's methods really work? "We try to subvert expectation by having triumphant moments go as badly as possible," says Segel. Which makes it all the sweeter when Jimmy and his lovable patients come out on top. —KH

The Legend of Vox Machina

FRIDAY, JAN. 20

ORIGINAL DRAMA Fan of Henry Winkler's portrait of bitter acting coach Gene Cousineau on Barry? Try hearing him voice a joyful if forgetful gnome on this animated adult Dungeons & Dragons–style adventure series about ragtag warriors saving a world beset by evil forces. "Henry just [sounds like] the most lovable great-great-grandfather of all time," says Travis Willingham, who plays barbarian Grog Strongjaw (left). Winkler joins a roster of guest voices in Season 2, which pits the dragons of the Chroma Conclave against the intrepid title team of half-elves, druids and bards. "Season 1 had an onslaught of terror, but it was the backdrop to stories set to unfold," says Willingham, who expects no letup of excitement this round. "We're certainly gonna have our hands full with those pesky dragons!" —Andrea Towers

WHAT'S WORTH WATCHING

PICK OF THE WEEK!

RALPH BAVARO/NBC

New Amsterdam

SERIES FINALE Tuesday, Jan. 17, 9/8c and 10/9c, NBC

WHEN NEW AMSTERDAM checks out after five seasons, expect the heartfelt hospital drama to go gentle into that good night. "The finale has [only] one medical story," says showrunner David Schulner, because the majority of the two hours are driven by the characters' personal stories: "Everyone is looking to heal—to repair the core trauma that started their journeys in the pilot episode."

That means surgeon Floyd Reynolds (Jocko Sims) comes to terms with the idea of what it means to be a perfect family. ER doc Lauren Bloom (Janet Montgomery) deals with the trauma of leaving her sister behind with their alcoholic mother. And psychiatrist Iggy Frome (Tyler Labine) is owning the feeling that he's not worthy of the marriage he's in.

Medical director Max Goodwin (Ryan Eggold, above, with Nora/Opal Clow), meanwhile, must define his future with his ex-fiancée, doc Helen Sharpe (Freema Agyeman). According to Schulner, the January 3 hour forced everyone to "take a big step" forward. Max, attempting to escape before her return to New York City, fled to the wilderness on a corporate retreat that turned tragic. By episode's end, he'd made a romantic commitment to oncology chief Elizabeth Wilder (Sandra Mae Frank)! "We're going to test it, put pressure on it," Schulner hints. "We're going to make sure it's the right decision."

Though the ending itself had been decided, it wasn't until Season 4 was wrapping that Schulner and the writers began to discuss the best way to say goodbye. The finale "really is everyone's origin story," he says. "It celebrates healthcare workers and that spark when you realize what you want to do with the rest of your life."

Prepare to shed some tears at the end of what he describes as a "poetic" episode—and to feel some excitement too. With the introduction of the new medical director, "We're going to meet the future of New Amsterdam," reveals Schulner. "We're closing one door and opening another, and it's really powerful and unexpected." —Andrea Towers

The Neighborhood

8/7c, CBS

LETTING GO OF a work routine he's had for 30 years turns out to be anything but easy for Calvin Butler (Cedric the Entertainer): He should be putting his feet up after the substantial payday he got from selling his auto repair business, Calvin's Pit Stop. Tonight on the comedy, he tries to embrace a life of leisure, traveling to Madrid with wife Tina (Tichina Arnold, above, with Cedric) for the honeymoon they never had. The actor tells us how that works out.

Easing into retirement shouldn't be so hard for Calvin, but it is. What's going on? It's one of those things where you realize you have worked hard and deserve the opportunity to get a win in life. And yet Calvin is still very nervous about feeling young enough to [question], "But now what?"

Who is pushing for the dream trip to Madrid? It's more Tina. Calvin starts to fill his days up with menial tasks to give himself a number of excuses not to go on vacation. It's Tina's idea to say, "Come on now, you've done that. Just go."

Traveling can be stressful. Once they get on their way, how do things go? [Laughs] Calvin doesn't believe you should check a bag ever, and of course Tina's got two big bloated bags and she's got to pay. Then when I get in my seat on the plane, someone brings their dog, and I'm like, "No, man. Unacceptable!" —Jim Halterman

9-1-1: Lone Star

SEASON PREMIERE 8/7c, Fox

▶ Raining frogs, airborne port-a-potties, a county fair in chaos…9-1-1: Lone Star definitely knows how to make an entrance! The Texas-based first responders drama blasts into Season 4 with a local carnival at the center of a freak weather event known as a derecho. It packs tornadolike conditions, flash floods and, yes, even some amphibians that get sucked up into the clouds before falling back to the ground. "Funny enough, the week we were shooting our derecho, a similar storm was making news in the Midwest," notes showrunner Tim Minear. "The green skies were all over Twitter."

The winds of change are blowing in for Station 126. Having gotten good news after a recent health scare, cancer survivor and firehouse captain Owen Strand (Rob Lowe, above) is seizing the day with some new motorcycle-lovin' pals who have a dark political agenda. His son T.K. (Ronen Rubinstein), now engaged to Austin P.D. beau Carlos (Rafael L. Silva), sees the planning upended by a gasp-inducing revelation. This "impacts them in big ways in the first part of the season," Minear hints.

Finally, widowed EMS captain Tommy Vega (Gina Torres) is set to make a divine connection to a single dad named Trevor (Lucifer's DB Woodside) during a rescue that could prove life-changing for them both. "These two have chemistry to spare," Minear raves of the reunited Suits couple. "Trevor allows Tommy to have some fun. Which she deserves." —Damian Holbrook

Finding Your Roots

8/7c, PBS (check local listings at pbs.org)

Ain't DNA grand? "My heart is going boom-boom-boom-boom-boom," says Carol Burnett after Dr. Henry Louis Gates Jr. (above, with the comedy icon) unravels a family mystery about her maternal grandfather.

The Rookie

8/7c, ABC

Trying to crack a nefarious crime ring, LAPD training officer Nolan (Nathan Fillion) gets an assist from The Rookie: Feds' feisty agent Simone Clark (Niecy Nash-Betts). Keep an eye out for a fast and funny cameo from a daytime talk favorite—Kelly Clarkson!

SEASON FINALE

9:30/8:30c, ABC

Since its 2021 debut, this whip-smart comedy about the Hayworth siblings—wealthy himbo Connor (Jimmy Tatro), struggling author Tom (Topher Grace, right, with TV wife and daughter Karla Souza and Chloe Jo Rountree) and cash-strapped school counselor Sarah (Caitlin McGee)—has consistently been on the money. Home Ec is a priceless look at family dynamics fueled by love and laughter instead of insult humor and toxic snark. In the season ender, a power outage traps them together with nothing but time to talk about the ties that bind them—and sometimes trip them up. Now...who do we speak to about getting a fourth season? —Damian Holbrook

TCM Morning Movies: Warmer Weather

6am/5c, TCM

Oh, winter, how you kill us by degrees! Luckily, we can fight back with 14 hours of movies filled with sun and fun and both rom and com. The heat begins in Fort Lauderdale, with Elvis Presley as a nightclub singer whose spring fever gets cured by college student Shelley Fabares in 1965's Girl Happy. James Cagney then does his best to win an engaged heiress (Bette Davis) in the 1941 screwball comedy The Bride Came C.O.D. (7:45am/6:45c). Jumping ahead to 11am/10c, Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland "put on a show" while they woo each other in the 1943 musical Girl Crazy. If you prefer to catch those late-afternoon rays, slather on the SPF for two spring break classics: 1960's Where the Boys Are (4:30/3:30c), and Troy Donahue and Stefanie Powers (above) looking for love on a Palm Springs Weekend (1963, 6:15/5:15c). —Robert Edelstein

Let's face it, without gutsy leader Hondo (Shemar Moore) and his sharp-eyed team, Los Angeles would have been toast long ago. Tonight, as part of a joint task force with the FBI, they aim to stop a terrorist group's planned attack. A car bomb kicks it off.

Blue Bloods

10/9c, CBS

Reagan roadblocks: A Harlem pastor's endorsement of Erin (Bridget Moynahan) for DA comes with conditions. And a murder victim's son impedes an investigation by detectives Danny (Donnie Wahlberg) and Baez (Marisa Ramirez).

Game Theory With Bomani Jones

SEASON PREMIERE

11/10c, HBO

Late-Night Pick

Jones returns with his topical and hilarious take on things that affect the wider world of sports. (His March takedown of star players buying into cryptocurrency was particularly prescient.)

Bad Behind Bars: Jodi Arias

MOVIE PREMIERE 8/7c, Lifetime

You won't like her when she's angry! Celina Sinden stars in this stranger-than-fiction docudrama as Jodi Arias, the California woman found guilty of fatally stabbing her ex-boyfriend Travis Alexander in 2008. As Arias awaits trial in prison, she befriends inmates Donavan Bering (Tricia Black) and Tracy Brown (Lynn Rafferty, above right, with Sinden). Soon inseparable, the trio share a cell, where Arias gives her pals tattoos! Then their happy, if unhealthy, bond is tested by Donavan's release: Having agreed to speak out about Arias' innocence, Donavan begins to have doubts. She discontinues her help—and the jailed Jodi mounts a campaign of abuse that proves just how dangerous this killer can be, even behind bars. —Damian Holbrook

The Pioneer Woman

10am/9c, Food Network

Daytime Pick

When time is of the essence, Ree Drummond has the hacks, making a jalapeño pineapple pizza, a one-pot pasta entrée with Cajun kick and two other meals in literally minutes.

ACROSS-THE-AISLE COMPROMISERS

Love & Marriage: D.C.

SEASON PREMIERE

8/7c, OWN

Newly engaged Joi Carter and Clifton Pettie (who met on OWN's Ready to Love) join the unscripted series about D.C. power couples in Season 2. Like everyone in Washington, they disagree: He wants a big wedding; she doesn't. Maybe returning pairs like nearly empty nesters Erana and Jamie Tyler can help break the tie.

Party Down

8/7c, Starz Comedy

Before the cater-waiter comedy is revived for a third round on February 24, catch up on the cult fave starring Ken Marino, Megan Mullally, Jane Lynch and Adam Scott (below) with a five-episode binge from its second season, which aired all the way back in 2010. Now that is some slow service! (One week from tonight: the rest of Season 2.)

Floribama Murders

9/8c, Oxygen

A body found in a burnt-out Chunchula, Alabama, home after Hurricane Ivan turns out to be no isolated incident: The 2004 homicide leads the law to a man who rapes, strangles, stabs and shoots women.

What We Do in the Shadows

3am/2c, FX

Late-Night Pick

The bloodsuckers (Matt Berry, Kayvan Novak and Natasia Demetriou) shut the coffin on their Emmy-nominated Season 2 with this sharp 2020 episode about an ill-fated night at the theater with their fellow vamps. A hilarious human really slays.

Whip It

Accused

SERIES PREMIERE 9/8c, Fox

"Zero hour is almost here, and I will take the respect I deserve." Imagine being the father reading that in his teen's journal. Michael Chiklis (above) opens this anthology series as neurosurgeon Scott Corbett. His elder son is kind and accomplished, his younger son, antisocial and angry. Though Scott's specialty is the human brain, the doc hasn't been able to fix his son's, and faced with those violent words, he makes an unspeakably difficult decision. "The least bad choice," says exec producer Howard Gordon (24).

Adapted from an acclaimed British series, Accused puts ordinary people on trial for taking wrong turns in challenging circumstances. Each hour begins in a courtroom with a new defendant. Via flashbacks, "piece by piece, you'll fill in the puzzle of what happened," says Gordon.

"Some of the episodes are tough, some leave you in tears, and others have quite a happy ending," he notes. Among the protagonists: a deaf surrogate mother who loves her community, a teacher who moonlights as a drag queen, a Black business owner whose daughter is assaulted and a female comedian who is raped. Margo Martindale, Molly Parker, Wendell Pierce, Rachel Bilson and Malcolm-Jamal Warner are a few of the A-listers playing the innocent, the guilty and the somewhere-in-between. —Ileane Rudolph

Law & Order: SVU

Noon/11am c, USA

Retro Pick

We're gonna need a bigger cake! This birthday tribute marathon for star Mariska Hargitay runs 13 hours, including a 3/2c airing of her Emmy-winning "911." The 2005 episode features then–junior detective Olivia Benson (left) frantically trying to locate a kidnapped girl by keeping her on the phone.

SNOWED IN! HOW AGATHA CHRISTIE!

Miss Scarlet and the Duke

8/7c, PBS (check local listings at pbs.org)

This fun outing drops London detective Eliza (Kate Phillips) in France's remote Hotel St. Marc on the trail of a con man.

Alien Abduction: Travis Walton

9/8c, Travel Channel

The eerie special revisits the 1975 case of an Arizona logger who vanished for five days after he and his crew spotted a flying saucer. Was he taken?

Yellowstone Wardens

9/8c, Animal Planet

For the conservation officers protecting America's natural resources, the biggest wilderness danger can be...people. Like rowdy partiers at the Yellowstone River Boat Float, or hunters crossing property lines.

The World According to Garp

Antiques Roadshow

8/7c, PBS (check local listings at pbs.org)

"I threw away the husband, but I kept the statue," crows a happy woman whose orange glass bird, a gift from her former mother-in-law, is appraised at $7,500. The series that rewards people who know what not to toss out hits Santa Fe, where cherished family heirlooms like a vintage Belle Epoque diamond necklace (above) are appraised for big bucks. Among the unusual finds: a wooden African slit drum that belonged to Duncan Renaldo, the actor who played the Cisco Kid; a New Mexico mining (not minor) league baseball trophy; and a 19th century Plains Indian child's beaded shirt. One could be worth as much as $200,000. —Diane Snyder

All American

8/7c, The CW

In this winter premiere, Coach Billy (Taye Diggs) isn't enjoying the birthday party wife Laura (Monet Mazur) threw for him. Instead he's fretting a decision he must make. All American: Homecoming returns at 9/8c.

The Bachelor

SEASON PREMIERE

8/7c, ABC

Gas up the limos and prune the rosebushes! Now that he's licked his wounds from the breakup with Bachelorette Rachel Recchia, California techster Zach Shallcross dives back into the dating pool with 32 women, all looking to land the man of the hour.

Darcey & Stacey

SEASON PREMIERE

8/7c, TLC

The twin stars of 90 Day Fiancé: Before the 90 Days are branching out—in more ways than one. While splitting time between Connecticut and their Miami digs, newly single Darcey looks for a fresh start while Stacey gets ready to plan her wedding to longtime love Florian Sukaj.

LONG SHIFT

The Good Doctor

10/9c, ABC

Further complications could imperil an already risky pregnancy for Lea (Paige Spara) and Shaun (Freddie Highmore); Drs. Park (Will Yun Lee), Reznick (Fiona Gubelmann) and Allen (Bria Samoné Henderson) treat a teen with a difficult condition that causes both benign and cancerous tumors.

TOP: PBS. BOTTOM: WARNER BROTHERS/COURTESY EVERETT COLLECTION

American Auto

SEASON PREMIERE 8:30/7:30c, NBC

It's wheels up on Season 2 of the zippy comedy set at fictional car manufacturer Payne Motors, and the staff is anything but idle. The opener picks up after Season 1's finale landed new CEO Katherine Hastings (Ana Gasteyer, above) in hot water; she's gasping for dignity following an ill-fated TV profile that exposed her role in hiding a defect of one of the company's cars. Now that the public knows of the wrongdoing, "it's about how Katherine and the rest of the group react to the stress of a scandal that just keeps getting worse," says creator Justin Spitzer. It doesn't help that Katherine still has no idea how the automotive industry operates, having come from Big Pharma.

Thankfully, her previously peeved team—including CCO Sadie (Harriet Dyer), social-media-savvy assistant Dori (X Mayo) and vapid Payne heir Wesley (Jon Barinholtz)—has finally embraced the boss' vehicular ineptitude and is invested in helping save the company. That should also help with issues coming down the pike for Payne. "[A lot] of our episodes come from them trying to resurrect their image, while contending with complex issues of workplace discrimination, women's rights, environmentalism and geopolitics," Spitzer explains. "There's almost no topic that a corporation this big doesn't have to deal with." Don't even get us started on gas prices. —Damian Holbrook

Roberta Flack

9/8c, PBS (check local listings at pbs.org)

From American Masters: There's a story beyond those monster hits ("The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face," "Killing Me Softly With His Song") about the classically trained, civil rights–battling star with that glorious voice. Archive material and interviews (Jesse Jackson) make that clear.

The Winchesters

9/8c, The CW

New timeslot! After a first kiss, feelings intensify between future mates Mary (Meg Donnelly) and John (Drake Rodger). Meanwhile, Mary's dad, the previously missing Samuel (Tom Welling), who was injured while saving the young couple from the evil Akrida, shares info about the Men of Letters with John's mom, Millie (Bianca Kajlich). And Carlos (Jojo Fleites) faces a dark chapter from his past.

I Am Jazz

SEASON PREMIERE

10/9c, TLC

Jazz Jennings (the surname is a pseudonym), whom we first met as a high schooler in 2015, begins an eighth season chronicling the joys and challenges of living as a transgender female. Returning to her Florida family for summer break after her first year at Harvard, she starts dating.

HEADLESS HORSEMEN

That Dirty Black Bag

11/10c, AMC

Late-Night Pick

That is bounty hunter Red Bill's (Douglas Booth, below) severed head valise! See it (and bloody Season 1) when the AMC+ series hits AMC.

MOVIES

The Young and the Restless

CBS, check local listings

Daytime Pick

The year was 1983 and Tracey E. Bregman (below) was cast in a short-term role as Lauren, a friend of good girl Traci Abbott (Beth Maitland) on CBS's daytime drama The Young and the Restless. "Lauren didn't even have a last name," says Bregman, laughing about that fateful day. "[Executive producer] Bill Bell said that I went to exit [the scene] and I turned back and looked at Beth and he saw Lauren Fenmore, the mean girl."

The stink-eyed teen may have made her mark bullying Traci, but she eventually left her nasty side behind to become one of Genoa City's most upstanding citizens. That's why today's show, which marks Bregman's 40th anniversary on the soap, is devoted to her. "Lauren is given a Lifetime Achievement Award for Leadership in Fashion," Bregman explains. A surprise element gets her talking about her life, leading to a colorful retrospective of her years on the daytime drama.

In addition to past storylines and fashion statements like 1980s big hair and shoulder pads ("They were so large!"), Lauren shares memories of her romantic life, including her 17-year marriage to crafty lawyer Michael Baldwin (Christian LeBlanc). What's made that union work? "We're not afraid to be bad, because we've been bad. We've killed people and gotten away with it," Bregman recalls wryly. She's definitely gotten away with 40 years as a fan favorite. "Not a bad gig," she says. —Jim Halterman

TRACEY E. BREGMAN'S 40TH ANNIVERSARY!

Deadly Australians

8/7c, Smithsonian Channel

This docuseries encore is short on noble beasts, focusing on the murderers, sadists and thugs of the animal and plant kingdoms—specifically, those who dwell in forests Down Under. Get up close (but not too) with the victim-throttling amethystine python, sometimes 20-plus-feet long; the golden orb weaver spider, with a web so strong it can trap small birds; and the stinging gympie-gympie plant. Future episodes focus on wetlands, deserts and oceans.

The Price Is Right at Night

8/7c, CBS

On this evening's installment of the new-old game show, host Drew Carey (right) challenges workers who hustle for gratuities to compete for anything from brand-new cars to $240,000 in cold, hard cash. Now that's a big tip!

MUSCLES AND VESSELS

Tough as Nails

10/9c, CBS

Transporting a large, unwieldy fishing net from flatbed trailer to boat is the challenge for this week's two competing teams on the blood, sweat and tears reality series. Next up, the individual challenge gets icy when the slowest ice-block crushers can't fill their bins—will they head into overtime or beat the clock?

Walker

8/7c, The CW

The past won't give Cordell Walker (Jared Padalecki, right) a break! Just as the Texas Ranger deals with the PTSD of his abduction and torture—with brother Liam (Keegan Allen)—by Grey Flag mercenaries, more chaos strikes. Cordi and partner Cassie (Ashley Reyes) hid key information related to the case, but Captain James (Coby Bell) is digging in. Making it trickier: According to a tip Cordi receives, his attackers may not be done with him. "Things heat up with Grey Flag," showrunner Anne Fricke warns. Expect serious twists. —Damian Holbrook

Call Me Kat

9:30/8:30c, Fox

Road trip! To celebrate Max's (Cheyenne Jackson) birthday, pals Kat (Mayim Bialik), Randi (Kyla Pratt) and Carter (Julian Gant) rent an RV and set off for the Smoky Mountains. A late joiner, Gideon (Jack McBrayer), may be a potential new café employee.

CRACKERJACK COPS

Law & Order: Organized Crime

10/9c, NBC

When Sgt. Ayanna Bell (Danielle Moné Truitt) learns that a powerful crime boss may be responsible for her former partner's murder, she enlists the OCCB task force to take him down. Meanwhile, Det. Elliot Stabler (Christopher Meloni) gets his own secret mission.

Boys in Blue

SERIES FINALE

8/7c, Showtime

This moving documentary series from Peter Berg (Friday Night Lights) portrays the bond between North Community High School of Minneapolis' mostly minority football team and their all-cop coaching staff in the aftermath of the George Floyd police killing. The conclusion brings an emotional state tournament game and another shocking murder that hits too close to home.

The Peanuts Movie

Gilligan's Weekend Marathon

6am/5c, SundanceTV

SEASON PREMIERE

8/7c, BBC America

Prepare to be dazzled. The natural history series returns with six snowy white and icy blue installments about wildlife thriving in the Arctic and Antarctic—those regions "that seem to be borrowed from fairy tales," according to naturalist narrator Sir David Attenborough—and beyond.

Hoax: The Kidnapping of Sherri Papini

MOVIE PREMIERE

8/7c, Lifetime

This original film is based on the true story of California wife and "supermom" Sherri Papini (Jaime King), who vanished in 2016 after going for a jog. She was discovered three weeks later beside a highway, branded, with a chain around her waist. Police found no evidence to back her wild "kidnapping" story. Turned out she was shacking up with an ex.

2023 Toyota U.S. Figure Skating Championships

3/2c, NBC

If you can't tune in earlier in this weeklong meeting of skating's sharpest stars in San Jose (airing on NBC, Peacock and USA collectively), today's last competition is a must-watch. Showcasing top male figure skaters from the United States, the Senior Men's Free Skate will turn the rink into a powerhouse. One to watch: Ilia Malinin (right) of Vienna, Virginia, 2022's reigning world junior champion and senior silver medalist in last year's U.S. Championships. Malinin, who medaled bronze at the Grand Prix Final in December, is the lander of the first-ever clean quadruple axel in competition. Others to know include Beijing Olympian Jason Brown, 28, and Camden Pulkinen, 22, who nailed two quad toe loop jumps here last year. Don't expect sweet spins—these guys came to crush ice. —Carole Braden

Worst Cooks in America: Viral Sensations

ALL-NEW mobility technology

Introducing the world's lightest mobility scooter with anti-tip technology

The So Lite™ Scooter is easy to transport and almost impossible to tip over.

Like millions of older Americans, I struggle with mobility. For years, I watched my quality of life slip away, as I was forced to stay home while friends and family took part in activities I'd once enjoyed. I thought I'd made some progress when I got a mobility scooter, but then I realized how hard it was to transport. Taking it apart and putting it back together was like doing a jigsaw puzzle. Once I had it disassembled, I had to try to put all of the pieces in the trunk of a car, go to wherever I was going, and repeat the process in reverse. Travel scooters were easier to transport, but they were uncomfortable and scary to drive, I always felt like I was ready to tip over. Then I found the So Lite™ Scooter. Now there's nothing that can hold me back.

Years of work by innovative engineers have resulted in a scooter that's designed with seniors in mind. They created Electronic Stability Control (ESC) that makes it virtually impossible to tip over. If you try to turn too quickly, the scooter automatically slows down to prevent it from tipping over. The battery provides powerful energy at a fraction of the weight of most batteries. With its rugged yet lightweight aluminum frame, the So Lite™ Scooter is the most portable scooter ever—but it can hold up to 275 pounds—yet weighs only 40.8 pounds without the battery! What's more, it easily folds up for storage in a car seat, trunk or even on an airplane. It folds in seconds without tools and is safe and reliable. Best of all, it's designed with your safety in mind, from the newest technology and superior craftsmanship. Why spend another day letting your lack of mobility ruin your quality of life? Call now and find out how you can get a So Lite™ Scooter of your very own.

Why a So Lite™ Scooter is better:

- Latest "No-Tip" Technology
- Lightweight yet durable
- Folds and locks in seconds
- Easier to operate

Exclusive Electronic Stability Control helps prevent tipping

CHEERS & JEERS

BY DAMIAN HOLBROOK

@damianholbrook

Cheers to Ghosts

for adding new life to the laughs. CBS's specter-filled hit struck gold once again by bringing on comic Mike Lane as Freddie, the very much alive assistant helping Sam and Jay (Rose McIver and Utkarsh Ambudkar) run their DOA-haunted B&B.

Cheers to Noah Centineo

for being The Recruit's best asset. Like a Jason Bourne for the TikTok crowd, the poster hunk of To All the Boys I've Loved Before brings a disarming mix of macho and mischief to Netflix's Alias-like thriller as a CIA lawyer in way over his head...and headed for a killer cliffhanger.

Cheers to Fantasy Island

for reopening with a major upgrade. After just over a year, Fox's enchanting reboot of the ABC anthology gem is finally back and smartly giving resort host Roarke (the perfectly cast Roselyn Sánchez) some emotional storylines of her own. It's a dream come true.

Cheers to Velma's splash of color.

Mindy Kaling's HBO Max cartoon imagines the Scooby-Doo icon as a South Asian teen obsessed with mysteries. And it's hilarious. Case closed.

Jeers to RuPaul's Drag Race

for changing lanes once again. First it was Logo, then VH1, now MTV. Do you people know how hard it is to move this much in high heels?!

Jeers to soaps wiping fan faves off the canvas. Just as Days wrote off Tamara Braun's Mafia princess Ava Vitali in December, General Hospital revealed Marcus Coloma was out as troubled heir Nikolas Cassadine in January. It's enough to make us want to throw a drink at someone's evil twin.

Jeers to SNL's Weekend Update for bringing us down. On the December 17 episode's fake-news segment, longtime standout Cecily Strong broke our hearts by abruptly announcing that it was her final show. Here's hoping Kenan Thompson gives us some warning when his time comes!

Jeers to The Wheel

for spinning so slowly. Not only did NBC's noisy, celeb-filled take on the U.K. game show from comic Michael McIntyre stretch out over two long weeks of play, but it also felt like we waited forever for each contestant's answer to be verified onscreen.
